

Preserving Parlors : Ice Screamer's Favorite Memorabilia

By Mary Jane Cary, in honor of our Ice Screamer's Member Fountains, Parlors, and Ice Cream Stands

The rise and fall of the soda fountain and ice cream parlor has always reflected momentous developments in American life: from Temperance and Prohibition to technological progress and suburbanization. The Covid19 Pandemic has presented a historic challenge to the businesses we hold dear, including many operated by members of our Ice Screamer's family. But Ice Screamer's, We stand United! So GO...make those priceless memories: call, write, visit, give, buy, pick-up, carry-out, deliver, support, in person or online. For preserving parlors is our name, and making memories is our game!

But wait...there's more! You can find ice cream shops among our Icecreamers friends at the International Dairy Foods Association IDFA [click here to see their video honoring our nation's essential food suppliers], National Ice Cream Retailers Association NICRA [click here to see their shop members' video], New England Ice Cream Retailers Association NEICRA, and Great Lakes Ice Cream and Fast Food Association GLIC+FFA. Although colleges and universities like our Icecreamers friends at the University of Guelph's Creelman Hall Hospitality Services remain focused on offering meals for students, faculty, staff and friends, the Pennsylvania State University's Berkey Creamery and University of Wisconsin's Babcock Hall Dairy Store are open, and enjoying ice cream outdoors is good for you! Support your local shop and make a new friend from among those at www.icescreamers.com/Links.html. For throughout America's history, including two World Wars, ice cream has always been an essential food. Now more than ever, the U.S. needs US Strong, so grab that spoon and straw...Let's Go, America!
